(G.O. Ms. No. 3, dated 24th October 2013)

ORDER

In the G.O. Ms. No. 1, dated 21st February, 2013 orders were issued to implement tendering of works, goods and services costing ₹10 lakhs and above through the Government e-procurement portal of Union territory of Puducherry viz. <https://pudutenders.gov.in>, as advised by the Government of India, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Department of Commerce (Supply Division), New Delhi which is funding this Mission Mode Project under National e-Governance Plan. The said Ministry has recently reviewed the progress of implementation of e-procurement in Union territory of Puducherry and it has felt that the volume of tenders processed through the e-procurement platform is comparatively low though the infrastructure for migrating to this new system is readily available. Hence, the said Ministry has recommended to scale up the volume of e-procurement by reducing the threshold value of e-tendering and by including more departments in the ambit of e-procurement. As advised by the said Ministry, the said G.O. dated 21st February, 2013 shall be amended as follows, namely:—

AMENDMENT

In the said G.O. dated 21st February, 2013, for para 2, the following shall be substituted namely:—

“2. It has now been decided that all the Departments and their attached Offices and Boards/Corporations/Societies/Autonomous/Statutory bodies of Government of Puducherry shall henceforth adopt Government e-procurement system in respect of procurement of goods, services and for executing works with an estimated value of ₹ 5 lakhs or above with effect from the month of October, 2013.”.
